PRODUCT OVERVIEW

If you are replacing the radio in your vehicle, this antenna cable adapter ensures you can continue using your factory antenna. It is a simple yet necessary cable that adapts the vehicle's original antenna cable to plug into an aftermarket radio with a male Motorola™ connector on one end and a female Toyota-style antenna connector on the other.

Features:

- Used to adapt the vehicle's antenna cable to use with an aftermarket radio
- Male Motorola™ connector on one end
- Female Toyota-style antenna connector on the other end
- A blue wire is attached to the adapter that connects to the antenna turn-on lead of the aftermarket radio
- 1-year warranty

Includes:

- (1) harness
